Springfield, KY 40069 USA Description Lincoln Homestead State Park is a park located just north of Springfield, Kentucky, in Washington County. The park encompasses 120 acres and features both historic and reproduced homes of Abraham Lincoln's family. Our 18-hole regulation course takes advantage of the natural rolling hills of central Kentucky. With four teelocations, golfers of all levels can find the right course to challenge their game. The course features Bermuda grass fairways and bent grass greens.

There are beautiful lakes and incredible vistas throughout the golf course. Lincoln Homestead

State Park also has a gift shop, fishing lake, non-powered boat ramp, shelter with small playground, an 18-hole disc golf course, and offers self-guided tours of historic buildings, and rental of clubhouse space for small events or gatherings. The beautiful landscape and team environment of the staff provide for an enjoyable career within Kentucky State Parks.

Are you interested in working on golf course located in a beautiful setting? We are looking for a golf course assistant superintendent that enjoys the outdoors, has knowledge and experience of the following: golf course maintenance and agronomic operations, budgeting
