Job Description and Duties

Despite the current execution moratorium, over 690 people have been sentenced to die in California. We need your help to save lives.

The Office of the State Public Defender (OSPD) provides cutting-edge legal services to indigent people convicted of non-capital and capital offenses who are appealing their convictions to the California Courts of Appeal and California Supreme Court. We are looking to train the next generation of capital appellate defenders.

As a Law Student Summer Intern with the OSPD, you will become a stronger writer and sharper legal researcher. You will come away with an understanding of what a career in appellate criminal defense entails and a writing sample that will help you open doors. Most importantly, you will be making a difference in the lives of people who need your help.
