About El Paso Perinatology – MFM

We provide prenatal care with compassion and professionalism. Our experienced Maternal Fetal Medicine specialists provide ultrasound examinations, genetic counseling, diabetes, high blood pressure, thyroid/heart/kidney disease, autoimmune disorders, advanced maternal age, preterm labor and fetal birth defects.

As the due date approaches, the perinatologist physician remains in close contact with the obstetrician who will deliver the baby.

Smooth teamwork and good communication between the perinatology specialist and obstetrician ensure both mother and baby receive the best possible care.

Our commitment is to provide thorough, professional and compassionate prenatal care and consultations. Our primary goal is for the best possible outcome for both the mother and baby.
