Company: Ingles Markets

Location: Clemson

Category: transportation-and-material-moving

Location: Clemson - Store 53: 854 Highway 93 Clemson SC 29631

Requirements

Ideal candidates will possess interpersonal and communication skills which will allow them to provide exceptional customer service while maintaining a high level of productivity, and complying with all safety and sanitation procedures; related experience is a plus.

A Day in the Life

At Ingles Markets, we like to offer the highest quality products possible. Our Stock Clerks work diligently to ensure that our shelves and inventory remain full of the vital products our communities count on. At Ingles Markets, we work together to offer our customers a legendary shopping experience, and your role will play a large part in accomplishing that mission.

Duties will vary per position. All team members will assist with processing shipments, stocking products, recycling waste, and maintaining inventory. Most importantly, you will be forming relationships with customers, team building, growing as a professional, and having fun! Does being a part dedicated team working behind the scenes to fuel the fast-paced grocery business interest you? Do you take pride in maintaining excellent conditions within your department? Is having an opportunity to learn, grow, and advance important to you? Do you have an eye for organization and presentation? You may soon join our team as a Stock clerk!

Experience

Never worked in this environment before? Here is an opportunity to start! Our team members will be here every step of the way while you journey from beginner to expert. Soon enough, you'll be helping the next associate learn the ropes. For associates who truly apply themselves, the leadership and team-building experience you can learn from this position can enhance your candidacy for leadership positions in the future.

Ingles Culture

Since the day that our doors opened in 1963, our team has been driven by a philosophy centered on learning and growth. With a hometown culture, a focus on internal growth and promotion, and team-centered servant leadership, Ingles Markets is here to help you grow as a professional from day one until retirement. Our team of 27,000 associates works diligently to provide shoppers with the highest quality experience. Our goal for excellence continues as we work together to ensure a safe, clean, productive work environment with equal opportunities for every associate. We understand how important our role in the community is. When Ingles Markets was founded, we established a tradition of giving back to our communities. Looking for a way to better yourself while also giving back? Join the Ingles family! Start your new career today!
