TriStar Hendersonville Medical Center is a 159-bed HCA Healthcare facility located just northeast of Nashville. The hospital is known for having the first Accredited Chest Pain Center and only Level II NICU in Sumner County.

The facility offers comprehensive services, including emergency care, neurological care, women's services, and orthopedics. The quality of these services have earned the hospital many awards and accreditations, such as recognition as a Top Hospital in Four Key Quality Areas and certification as a Primary Stroke Center by The Joint Commission. Staff members say that TriStar Hendersonville Medical Center is a great place to work because of its family-like atmosphere, small-town feel, and holistic approach to healthcare.

The Center is about a 20-minute drive from Downtown Nashville. The city of Hendersonville offers many activities, like visiting Historic Rock Castle, shopping at The Streets of Indian Lake, and boating on Old Hickory Lake. For a quiet, friendly city close to the state capital, look no further than Hendersonville.
